General Staff, U. S. Army

Dear General Irwin:

Thank you for the very kind remarks in your letter of 19 August 1949 concerning my recent lecture at the Strategic Intelligence School.

I shall be delighted to address the Eleventh Class of the School in September. The tentative date of 6 September does not fit into my schedule, but any time from 8 September on would be satisfactory to me. If you will have your people contact my office, I am sure the date and time can be arranged.

Again with thanks and with kindest regards, believe me,

Sincerely,

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

I am taking this opportunity to express my appreciation for your recent lecture contribution to the Strategic Intelligence School Special Course, conducted for officers of the Military Intelligence Reserve. It is a pleasure to inform you that your lecture was regarded by students and the School as one of the highlights of the course.

The Eleventh Class of the regular course of the School is now underway and its lecture phase will run until 14 September 1949. Included in this class are sixty-eight student officers, thirty-two of whom are attaches-designate.

I hope that you may find it convenient to address this class. The date tentatively scheduled for this lecture is 6 September at 1040 hours. If this invitation is acceptable and if the arrangements, either in date or time, are not satisfactory to you, the School will be glad to make other plans more in accord with your desires.

Should you accede to this request, a member of the School Staff will communicate with your office in order to effect whatever arrangements you may desire in connection with this presentation.

Sincerely yours,
(Sgd) S. LeROY IRWIN
